Art Unit: 3764

Claims 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 12-22 are allowed.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Berkowitz.

Berkowitz discloses a device comprising two straps (104 encircling a back plate (102) and a pad/strap (108).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Berkowitz et al in view of Sprague.

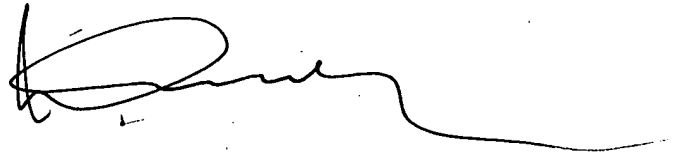

The Examiner notes that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide an adjustable strap such as the strap shown by Hearn as an alternate known strap means in the art of seat exercise devices.

Art Unit: 3764

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note the plate and bands of Dudley. Note over a device of Hern Prusick, Maron and Willis.
